Part A: Introduction to Pastoral Care

Understand the Biblical basis for pastoral care, the pressures experienced in society, caring for people with relational difficulties, depression, addictions, illness and grief issues. Also look at how pastoral care and evangelism relate to one another and how to care for oneself.

Part B: Practical Pastoral Care

Develop practical pastoral care skills. Learn how to ask helpful questions and to listen effectively. Learn how to reflect theologically and practically on your current pastoral care ministry, learn some helpful models, understand boundaries in pastoral care. Learn about sensitive use of the scriptures and prayer. You can use your current ministry as the basis for this subject and develop your skills.
