2022 Certificate Units

PRIMARY COURSE DISCIPLINE UNITS (CORE UNITS)

Old Testament

OT • 12 hours class time (50 hours total study time)

Capture 'God's big picture' in the Old Testament. As we explore the Old Testament narrative and its themes, we will witness its deep impact for our ministry and everyday life in today's ever-changing world.

New Testament

NT • 12 hours class time (50 hours total study time)

Study the New Testament writings in their original context. Discover their meaning for the Christian believer and for the local church today. Be enriched in your relationship with God and inspired to see how relevant God's word is to your life and witness today.

Christian Belief

CB • 12 hours class time (50 hours total study time)

Gain an introduction to the doctrines of the Christian faith, such as creation, sin, grace. This unit models the importance of letting our beliefs shape our everyday lives and ministries.

CREDIT ELECTIVE UNITS

Introduction to Pastoral Care

IPC • 12 hours class time (50 hours total study time)

Investigate the biblical basis of caring, and examine issues and skills that will help you to become a more effective member of your church and community. Your ministry to others will never be the same again.

Introductory Applied Pastoral Care

IAPC • 12 hours class time (50 hours total study time)

Learn how to ask helpful questions, listen effectively and reflect theologically and practically on current pastoral care ministry. Learn about sensitive use of the scriptures and prayer. This unit includes a practical component. Pastoral Care (IPC) is a prerequisite for this unit.

Introduction to Christian Spirituality

ICS • 12 hours class time (50 hours total study time)

Do you yearn to grow in your spiritual life, but are not sure what is a biblical and Christian model for spirituality? We will explore the scriptures and consider the classic spiritual disciplines that have been practiced by Christians throughout the generations, with the opportunity to engage in a day retreat time together.
